COUNCIL ACTION: (Tape location: B029-048.)

ITEM-333:

Matters of:

1) Proposal to adopt a revision to the Mid-City Community Plan. The proposed revision includes but is not limited to the following:

- a) Update of existing conditions data.
- b) Revisions to the land use map, including residential densities, commercial use, industrial use and open space.
- c) Transportation improvements.
- d) Neighborhood and community park needs.
- e) Commercial and housing revitalization strategies.
- f) Urban Design guidelines.
- g) Proposed implementation measures.

2) Proposal to adopt the Proposed Mid-City Interim Residential and Commercial Building Limitation Ordinances. The residential ordinance would restrict development in Zone R-1000 and R-600 to one dwelling unit per 1,500 square feet of lot area unless a Planned Residential Development Permit is obtained, within that area bounded by I-805 on the west; I-8, Fairmount Avenue and Montezuma Road on the north; Collwood Boulevard, 54th Street and Euclid Avenue on the east and Highway 94 on the south. The commercial ordinance would apply to all commercially zoned property within the Mid-City Community Plan area. A Mid-City Interim Commercial Permit will be required for all new construction and for significant exterior improvements. These ordinances would be in effect until the zoning in the area is consistent with the Mid-City Community Plan or for one year, whichever occurs first. (District-3.)
